DANCE

Cesc Gelabert

Imagine dance as a meditation and you have a notion of what it is like to watch a performance by the veteran Catalonian dancer-choreographer Cesc Gelabert. Wiry and intense, he gives off the aura of an ascetic monk. For the White Light Festival, the pianist Pedja Muzijevic asked Gelabert, now in his sixties, to create a solo set to Morton Feldman's quietly luminous work "Triadic Memories." The music is performed live by Muzijevic, a player of great refinement and delicacy.
